The City of Vicksburg is the Anchor Liner for Vicksburg, leaving the elevator at ten o'clock this morning. Of course she will return with a big load of people coming to Memphis to enjoy the grandest carnival of fim and spectacular display ever witnessed under the sun. Captain Riley commands.

The propeller, J. N. Roberts, arrived from Letard, Ohio, yesterday, towing a couple of heavily laden produce boats. The Roberts is the largest, and perhaps, the handsonest the largest, and perhaps, the handso nest propeller ever seen here. She has a neat and comfortable cabin. Captan W. A. Roberts, her owner, is in command of her. She will remain here till her cargo is disposed of. The Coahoma sails for Friars Point at her usual hour this evening. Captain Stack Lee is the big bell-dozer, while Ed Thomas, Sic

The Grand Republic, Captain Thorwegan will be found in port to-day receiving for her return to New Orleans, being on a grand round-trip Mardi-Gras excursion. Those prefering to witness how New Orleans cele-brates the occasion will find the best part of the event on the trip to and from that city on board this great floating palace. Messrs. Miltenberger and Sedam are in the office. The Hard Cash left with a bully trip for White river yesterday. Captain Postal provided everything needed to make his Mard iras excursionists comfortable. Chamberlain hired a barber to tonsoriali his head and countenance and will be the cynosure of all eyes, the observed of all ob servers in the cabin. Charley Postal will deal out smiles from behind the desk, while Dick Brennan has provided his larder with all the delicacies as well as substantials of the season. A delightful trip is assured. Vicksburg Herald, Sunday: "The follow-ing levee contract was let here on Friday by the Louisiana company: Buckhorn levee, between Milliken Bend and Omega, to John M'Ginty, of New Orleans, and sub-let to John Reed and W. Baggett, of this city. Mr. Reed has just finished his contract at Skipwith's and the Refuge place, which completes the chain of work from the Bass levee to Diamend place, except a break of about four thousand yards at the old Brown and Johnston front, which must be looked after in part by the people of that vicinity, as the Louisi-ana board has already made contracts considerably beyond their limit for this year. Madison parish should look after this matter at once, as we feel confident the gap could be easily closed through individual assurances."
